FRIDAY

16 SEPTEMBER 2016

2032 UI MAIN LIBRARY

1 - 2:30 PM

The Mellon Foundation Sawyer Seminar is an interdisciplinary collaboration dedicated to mapping cultural exchanges across Eurasia from roughly 400 CE ca. 1450 CE, by focusing on the development, distribution and sharing of manuscript and book technologies.

The Seminar, which hosts a public lecture series, is directed by three University of Iowa faculty members: Tim Barrett (Center for the Book), Paul Dilley (Classics and Religious Studies), and Katherine Tachau (History).

Contact paul-dilley@uiowa.edu for additional information.
